MILWAUKEE CONVENTION INSTRUCTS FOR BRYAN "FIRST, LAST AND ALWAYS"

MANSON MEN GET THE DELEGATION

DELEGATES AT LARGE FOR MAN-
SON AS COMMITTEEMAN

MAY MEAN DEFEAT OF RYAN

District Delegates to Decide—Brady

Attacks Aylward as Anti-Bryanite

The state democratic convention today instructed delegates to the national convention at Denver to "vote for Bryan first, last and always."

There was no fight on this, and no opposition of a latent character to speak of, the anti-Bryan feeling having been kept from sight by the "conservatives," owing to the certainty that Bryan would win by a tremendous majority.

H. H. Manson won a victory in his fight against National Committeeman Ryan, the four delegates at large being the Manson slate. This was the battle of the younger element, and if the attitude of the delegates at large is endorsed by a majority of the district delegates it means that Timothy Ryan will not again be the national committeeman.

Manson is a candidate for this position. The final outcome on that subject is in doubt, the attitude of the district delegates being disputed. The Ryan men claim they have enough of them to constitute a majority of the whole delegation, but this is disputed by State Chairman Manson's followers.

The delegates at large elected are as follows:

Charles R. Weise.
H. H. Manson.
John A. Aylward.
M. A. Hoyt.

The opposing candidates were made alternates. The result is that the delegation at large is made up of the always-was Bryan men. It was a Bryan convention in everything. The triumph of the unit rule was also a Manson victory.

The sensation of the convention was a vigorous speech by Brady, who attacked Aylward, late democratic candidate for governor, declaring that he is not and never had been a Bryan man, and that therefore he could not consistently be given the support of the convention for election to a Bryan delegation.

Aylward replied in an earnest speech in which he declared these charges were untrue, and that he was sincerely in favor of the nomination of Mr. Bryan.

DENEEN LAWYER AND COMMITTEE CLASHES

CHICAGO, Feb. 14.—William E. Moulton, chairman of the state civil service league, and legal representative of Governor Deneen, engaged today in a bitter clash with Chairman Hill and Representatives Manny and McLaughlin of the legislative committee investigating the Illinois asylums Moulton was charged by the committeemen with being an "accessory" of the governor in the preparation of a false and slanderous attack on the committee and its work. The exchange was bitter and a serious situation was relieved only by adjournment.

80 MILLION FINE FOR TOBACCO TRUST

LEXINGTON, Ky., Feb. 14.—It was announced today that tests will be made in the higher courts of the indictments returned against agents of the American Tobacco company. Every buyer was indicted separately, and attorneys say that if the anti-trust laws hold fines larger than those assessed against the Standard Oil will be assessed. It is estimated that the agents made four thousand purchases each week for four weeks this season, the total maximum fine for which would be eighty millions, and the minimum eight millions. Prison sentences are also provided.

RECEIVER FOR THE MUTUAL RESERVE

ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 14.—Attorney General Jackson made application today in New York for a receiver for the Mutual Reserve Life Insurance company, on the ground that it is hopelessly insolvent. The application is based on the findings of the examiners of the state department, who together with the Colorado insurance commissioner have been investigating for several months.

JOHN C. BURNS

LA CROSSE MAN ELECTED DELEGATE TO THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

FEARFUL OF POVERTY WITNESS FALLS RAVING FROM STAND

CONSTERNATION IN THE CIRCUIT COURT

ANTON HESSELBERG FEARED
FOR HIS FORTUNE

FRENZIED AT IDEA OF LOSS

Rolls About Biting His Fingers and Raving While Lawyers and Witnesses Try to Restrain Him

Fearful of the modest store of wealth he had laid up for his old age—timorous as the miser whose hoard is threatened—Anton Hesselberg, a Bangor farmer, fell raving from the witness stand in circuit court just before noon, while under the fire of cross-examination by Attorney Skaar, and rolling about the floor bit his fingers, moaned and ranted like a maniac. So frenzied was the old man at the prospect of having to pay a judgment to Drs. Christiansen and Gunderson for an operation upon his son Alfred, whom he says he long before cast off, that it required the combined strength of Attorney Skaar, several other lawyers and witnesses and a physician to restrain him.

"Going to the poor house—poor house," he moaned. "They're trying to send me to the poor house."

He was lifted to one of the seats in the court room and Dr. Rowles was called and administered restoratives. His son William and his Attorney, Wolfe, remained with him, and in an hour he had calmed down considerably.

Mr. Hesselberg has been under a severe mental strain for the past few days. Yesterday the Lutheran hospital was awarded $134 and interest at 6 per cent from 1905 for treatment of his son who was suffering from a gunshot wound. This the old man will have to pay. Today Drs. Christiansen and Gunderson's suit for an operation on the boy was started, and the mental anguish occasioned by the prospect of having to pay this, too, is responsible for the man's breakdown. He claimed that he did not authorize the treatment or operation, and refused to pay for either.

Hesselberg owns a farm of about two hundred acres near Bangor, but it is said to be heavily mortgaged, and this together with late financial reverses has worked heavily upon the old man's mind.

The court was promptly adjourned when the man became ill, but this afternoon the trial was resumed and the final arguments were in progress at 3:30.

LONDON, Feb. 14.—Arthur Byne, the arrested bigamist, has been sentenced to seven years imprisonment. He confessed in the form of an autobiography which is published here today. He admits being the "Witzhoff" wanted in many American cities, and says his real name is F. A. Schotz. He has used 28 names, but has only 32 wives instead of hundreds.

According to Chicago information Witzhoff is credited with having 500 wives. He was arrested in a charge of matrimonial frauds. His knowledge of women is without a flaw, and compared with his slippery methods, the love making of the unlamented Johann Hock was a cumbersome and awkward effort. Hock had spent the best years of his life in the accumulation of 50 wives, while his distinguished contemporary seems at times to have been able to increase his list of better halves at the rate of two or three a week.

MUNICIPAL AND JUVENILE COURTS DEMANDED AS A RELIEF IN THE CITY

COUNTY COMMITTEE TO DECIDE ON LATTER AT MEETING

BILL TO PROVE THE FORMER

Legislature Will Be Asked to Establish Tribunal Here—V. S. Keppel to Call Conference

Municipal and juvenile courts will soon be in operation in La Crosse if a plan in which Judges Fruit and Brindley, County Chairman V. S. Keppel of Mindoro, and several prominent attorneys are interested, can be put through. Within two weeks Chairman Keppel will hold a meeting of a committee of the county board which has under consideration the application of Judge Brindley of county and probate court for a clerk, and upon the decision reached at this conference much of the future of the juvenile court prospect depends.

The plan for the municipal court contemplates the abolishment of the existing police court, and the new tribunal would handle all criminal matters and civil actions involving up to a specified amount, from $500 to $2,000, or such limit as might be provided in the measure.

Fruit Seeks Relief

Judge J. J. Fruit of the circuit court is in favor of the municipal court. He says relief is needed in the circuit court, as there is now so much business to be handled by the court in this county that never since he has been on the bench has the docket been entirely clear. Considering this county is but one of five in his jurisdiction, the excess of work entailed may be fully appreciated. Judge Fruit's circuit includes La Crosse, Juneau, Trempealeau, Monroe and Vernon counties.

To Introduce Bill

Promoters of the municipal court are preparing a bill which will be presented to the next legislature providing for its establishment. The bill will very likely abolish the police court now maintained here, and the office of police justice will be done away with entirely, all of this business being handled by the new court. It is the purpose of the promoters of the proposition to have the new court handle civil business involving under about $2,000, and all or part of the criminal business to some specified degree, as might be decided upon later.

Brindley Favors It

County and Probate Judge John Brindley is also in favor of the new court. He declares that while it

CLAY DENOUNCES THE ALDRICH BILL

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Denouncing the Aldrich bill as vicious, and favoring instead Senator Bailey's plan for the issuance of a half million of treasury notes, Senator Clay of Georgia, today discussed the financial question for an hour and a half. He asserted that the bill was drawn in "favor of the rich and powerful, enabling them to control money issue, and not in the interest of the people."

Clay criticized congress for allowing a surplus of three hundred millions to accumulate in the treasury. He said he didn't blame the secretary of the treasury for placing it in the national banks, as it was better there than in the treasury. He declared, moreover, that the south and west were discriminated against in the classification of the bonds in the bill to be used as a basis of increased circulation.

OFFICERS FIND LOOT IN WIERD "INDIAN HILL" CHAPEL-HOUSE

JOHN PALIWODA IS CHARGED WITH GROCERY ROBBERY

FOUND HIDING IN WOODS

Undersheriff Visits Queer Abode of Prisoner and Locates the Stolen Property

In an improvised chapel, with its crucifix, its lighted candles and altar—all in a shabby dwelling on Indian hill, the police have found evidence they believe will convict John Paliwoda of at least one, and perhaps of many, robberies.

Paliwoda is now at Central police station awaiting trial on the charge of having robbed the grocery store of Christ Schmidt on the north side.

Some time ago the store of Schmidt was entered at night and goods that would fill an ordinary delivery wagon were carried away. The police at that time found no clues. The same parties returned within a few nights and made off with another load. Later the grocery store of E. W. Schultze was entered and robbed of a large quantity of groceries, the circumstances of the job being identical with the one at the Schmidt place. The robberies were the strangest of any that have occurred in La Crosse for some time. In each instance the thief attempting to take nothing but groceries.

Owing to several circumstances connected with the robbery of his store, Schmidt the first man robbed, became suspicious of Paliwoda and after some investigation reported his theories to the sheriff.

Yesterday Undersheriff John Mohr armed with a search warrant and accompanied by Fred Haun, turnkey at the county jail, proceeded to ransack the Paliwoda home in search of evidence.

The house, a humble abode with all the appearances of a "robbers' roost," is located on Indian hill. At the time of his visit yesterday Mr. Mohr found all of the blinds drawn but after some little parleying was admitted by Mrs. Paliwoda.

Burning Candles on Altar
What they saw upon entering the house was altogether unexpected. In the front room, which was poorly furnished, there was a bed and a few old chairs while at one end of the room stood an altar with crucifixes.

RETURNS $108, GETS "MUCH OBLIGED"

All he got was "a much obliged to you," not only the name of the song hit, but an actual experience was thrust upon Ber Hudson when he found a pocketbook containing $108 in cash and returned it to the owner yesterday. The pocketbook was found Wednesday evening. A party returning from the leap year dance, flashed his roll and when he replaced it in his pocket, he took it. It was later found by Bert Hudson who after finding the owner returned it.

BROWNSVILLE, Minn., Feb. 14.—(Special.)—The verdict of the coroner's jury at the inquest over the remains of Charles Hackett, who died as the result of a brawl in the saloon of Gottlieb Jahn Tuesday evening, was that he came to death accidentally by falling on the floor.

A post mortem was held and showed that his skull had been fractured, and a blood clot caused his death. Coroner Dr. D. C. Rhines of Caledonia held the inquest and was accompanied to Brownsville by Sheriff C. K. Blexrud and County Attorney O. H. Dahl.

BLOOD POISON

HUMILIATING-VILE-DESTRUCTIVE

The first symptom of Contagious Blood Poison is usually a little sore or ulcer, which is quickly followed by a red rash on the skin, swollen glands in the groin, falling hair, ulcerated mouth and throat, and often copper colored spots on different parts of the body. As the blood becomes more fully contaminated with the poison, pustular eruptions and sores break out on the flesh, and in extreme cases the nerves and bones are attacked and the finger nails drop off. Then the sufferers find themselves diseased from head to foot with this humiliating, vile and destructive poison. No other disease is so highly contagious; many an innocent person has been inoculated by handling the clothing or using the toilet articles of an infected person. There is but one certain, reliable cure for Contagious Blood Poison, and that is S. S. S. It attacks the disease in the right way by going down into the circulation, and neutralizing and forcing out every particle of the poison. It makes the blood pure and rich, tones up the system, and completely and permanently cures this disease. S. S. S. has cured thousands of cases of Contagious Blood Poison. If you are suffering with this debasing and destructive disease begin the use of S. S. S. and get the poison out of your blood before it permanently wrecks your health. We have a home treatment book on the disease which we will send free to all who wish it, and in addition our physicians will give without charge any medical advice needed. BOWLING IMPROVED DURING TOURNEY

MANY BIG SCORES ROLLED AT CINCINNATI MEET

RAY STOIKE STILL HIGH MAN

Milwaukee Knights of the Pins Start Agitation for Re-election of Abe Langtry

CINCINNATI, O., Feb. 14.—Ray Stoike of Chicago is still high in the national bowling tournament, though several high scores were rolled in the singles Wednesday afternoon and night. The bowling was of a high character in all events, though the leaders in the various events are still sticking to the top. The best work in the doubles was done by Langenberg and Amerling of St. Louis, who totaled 1,192 in the first shift. Hopkins, the old Milwaukee bowler, and Brown of Indianapolis secured but 1,016 in this event.

A good deal of interest was aroused late last night by the arrival of the Milwaukee bowlers, who came in fifty strong. They made a good deal of noise and started immediately booming Abe Langtry for re-election to the office of secretary. All the incoming knights are favorable to the Milwaukee man and it is expected that there will be no opposition to him whatever.

LA CROSSE PREFERS OLD ORGANIZATION

ONLY FAILURE COULD DRIVE TEAM FROM THIS LEAGUE

Eau Claire FORMING LEAGUE

Figures La Crosse and Wausau Will be Hunting a New Home by Next Year and Would Join Them

Eau Claire fans are now promoting a new Wisconsin league, and believe that by next season La Crosse and Wausau will be ready to quit the Wisconsin-Illinois league, and join with them in the move.

President Elliott of the local association, however, prefers the old organization, and so long as La Crosse can keep up her end of it in finances La Crosse will stay in that organization. It is thought the rumpus over Eau Claire this winter will serve to stimulate interest in this end of the game in all of the cities in the league, and as La Crosse is ordinarily a good baseball town, the game has the support of all its newspapers, there is no reason why, with some hustling upon the part of the officers the receipts here should not stand up with any in the league next year.

The dispatch from Eau Claire regarding the new league says:

"The action of the Eau Claire club in selling its franchise does not mean that Eau Claire is going to be without professional ball this year. It is said on good authority that Wausau and La Crosse will hardly last a year longer in the league, owing to poor railroad connections and in that event they will either of their own will withdraw or be forced out next year and a new league formed. Among the cities that are looked upon as possible members are La Crosse, Eau Claire, Wausau, Merrill, Superior, Ashland Duluth, Chippewa Falls, Stevens Point."

Rockford Meeting

Fans and magnates of Rockford will meet this week for the purpose of attending to the formal details of organization. Mike Golden has leased Riverside park there for ten years, to be used as a ball park.

Oshkosh Rejoicing

The announcement that the Eau Claire-Rockford controversy has been adjusted by the Wisconsin-Illinois league caused rejoicing in Oshkosh, where matters are in such a condition that delay in the organization of the league would be decidedly injurious, if not dangerous. Now it is felt that the matter of local reorganization can be pushed and great enthusiasm is displayed over the meeting of the association being held today to elect officers, select a park and so forth. It is expected that J. P. Pulliam will be elected president and William Geiger secretary and treasurer. About all that remains to decide is the selection of the park. Last season all of the games were played at the White City park, three miles south of the city. It is proposed this year to play weekday games at the driving park, which is situated in the north end of the city. Stock to the amount of $2,500 has already been subscribed and smaller and more general subscriptions will raise the total fund to $3,500. George Bubser, who will manage the team, is signing players and promises to start off with a good team.

Garry Herrmann and Cincinnati made their bow to the bowling fraternity of the United States Saturday night, on the occasion of the annual bowling meet at Cincinnati. Two thousand one hundred bowlers have registered for the day, and a merry time is on.

This, the eighth annual meet, is being held at the First Regiment armory and continues for 15 days, from February 8 to February 22. A total prize fund of $23,230 is to be divided up and many a man will go home covered with glory and enriched by worldly possessions. On the last night the bowlers' banquet gives a fitting climax to the contest.

HIGH SCHOOL 19, HOUSTON 12

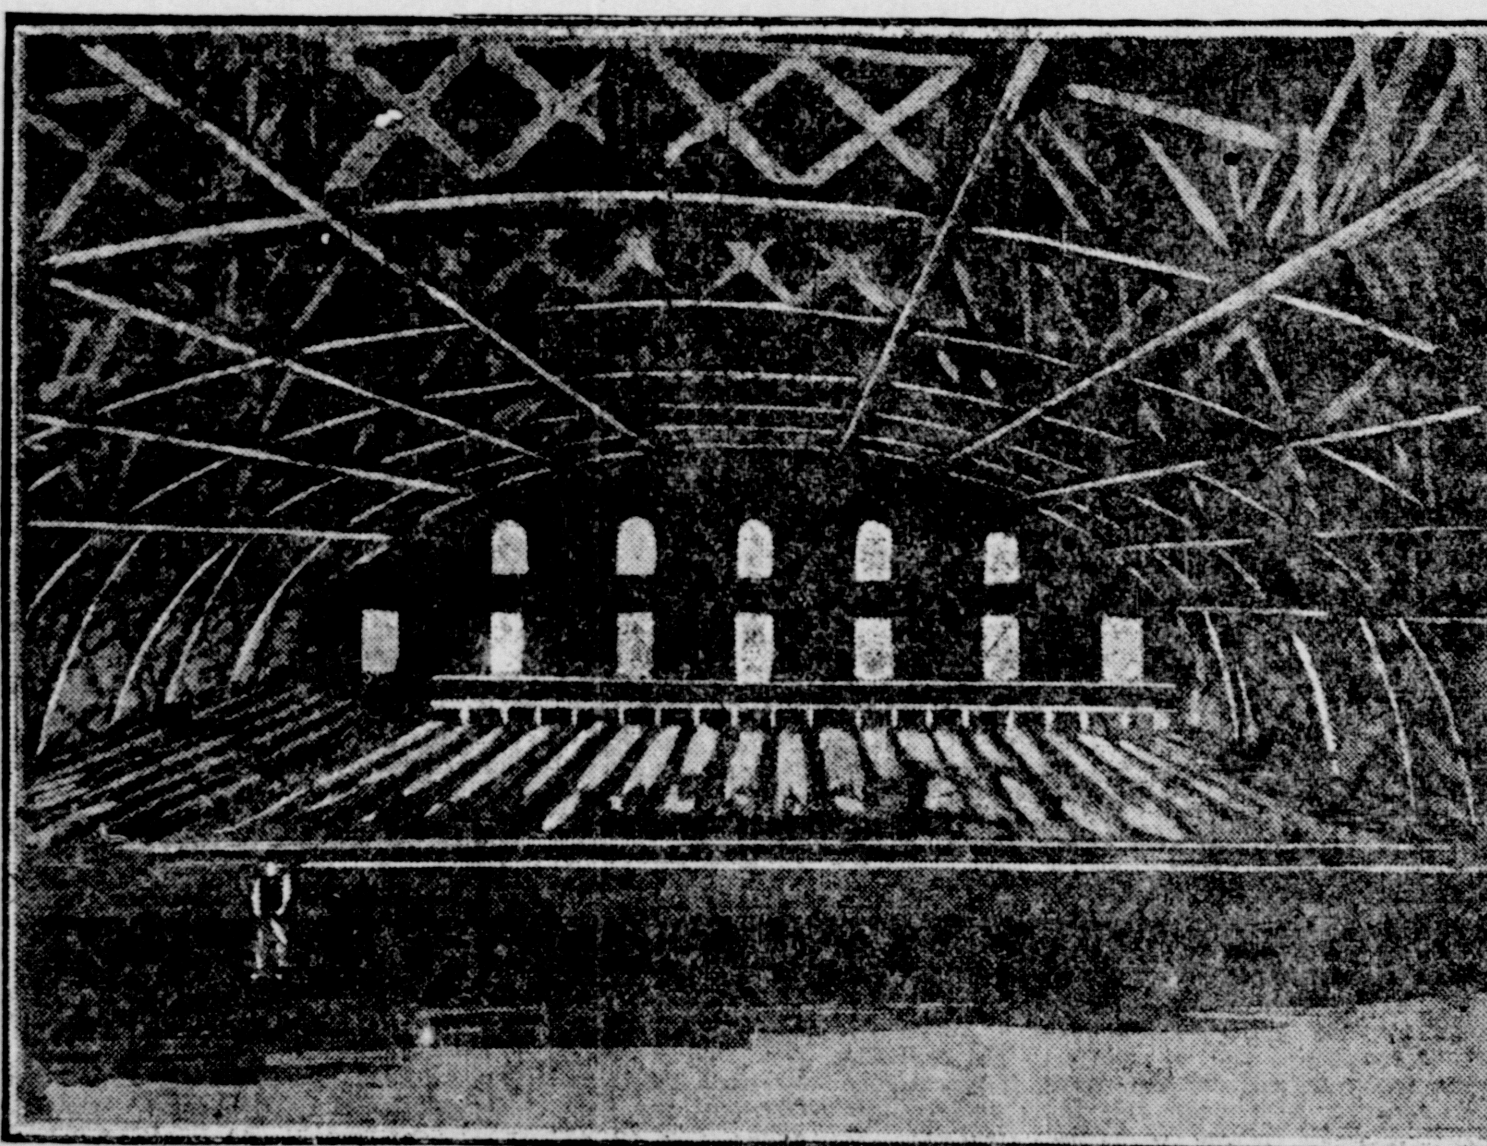

The first girls' team of the High school defeated the Houston girls' team Tuesday evening by a score of 19 to 12. The game was played in the high school gymnasium and was witnessed by a large and enthusiastic crowd. The Houston team was accompanied by a crowd of supporters who came here with the intention of carrying off a victory. The feature of the game was the star shooting of Mary Anderson, the left forward of the home team, must of the points having been made by her. The first half ended with the score of 14 to 6 but in the second half the Houston team braced up and did some splendid work in guarding and basket throwing. The lineup of the home team is as follows:

Forwards—Mary Anderson and Helen Scofield.
Center—Helen Harrison.
Guards—Edna Anderson and Gertrude Smith and Ella Horne.

THE ALDRICH BILL.

It is announced that President Roosevelt is about to throw his influence in favor of the passage of the Aldrich currency bill. Not being bankers any more, or any less, than the president, we are inclined to exercise the right of differing with him on this point. His attitude seems to be that "a half loaf is better than nothing," but in our estimation the proper aphorism would be, "No egg is better than a bad egg."That is an unprofessional opinion
—as unprofessional as is the opinion of the president. To him, however,
we must concede the advantage of access to professionals willing to advise, and able to advise right. But so great must be the temptation of the eastern banking experts to acquire for their institutions the apparent advantages of this measure, advantages personal to them and not accruing to the general public, that we hesitate to believe that the president has always been advised honestly and correctly.In the light of recent events there is no justification for the opinion that New York and other eastern bankers are too public spirited to take advantage of the opportunity
the bill affords for cornering gold.
When they had induced the national treasury to come to their relief with funds, and while the west was crying in distress for money, they used
these relief funds for gigantic speculations in buying gilt edged stocks
at panic prices. President Roosevelt is enlisted in fighting certain forms
of dishonest business, and we doubt
the safety of caressing carnivorous game, even with a loaded gun in one's hand.

ALFALFA A RICH CROP.

There is not in this section a more active and progressive body of men
than that which constitutes the La Crosse County Agricultural society.
Its members bring to the discussion of the farm and its activities, not only that knowledge which comes from working experience, but the broader and deeper understanding that comes from study, and intercourse with scientists, and familiarity with the latest results of scientific research and experiment. They keep fully abreast of the times.Those who have lived in the land of alfalfa, even though they may not enjoy expert knowledge of its particular elements of value, will appreciate the wisdom of the advice of Messrs. Linse and Van Loon urging persistent attempts to grow the crop
in La Crosse county. It is a prolific product. It is enriching many states.
We acquired our first impressions of its adaptability to this soil and cli-mate from the speeches delivered at Campbell hall Wednesday. Messrs.
Van Loon and Linse are optimistic
over the possibilities of growing it here. They advise a trial—repeated trials if necessary. If they succeed, it will be worth all the study, work
and worry it costs, for it will add to the wealth of La Crosse county.

LA FOLLETTE AND THE TARIFF.

So completely has the time of Senator La Follette been taken up with matters affecting the regulation of public service companies, that he has been able to give little attention so far as his public efforts are concerned, to the tariff. Out of this has grown, or been manufactured, the idea that he is not an ardent tariff reformer. Indeed, among those who are not in sympathy with him, or who are worshipping other political gods,
or who are secretly or openly sympathizers with the beneficiaries of the prohibitive tariff, it is a common objection to him that he is not in favor of tariff reduction, and even that he is a protectionist as the term is understood among the "stand-pat-ters."Complete refutation of this claim comes to hand in the telegram sent by Senator La Follette to the Racine club, on the occasion of its Lincoln dinner. Mr. La Follette thus expressed himself on the tariff:"The preservation of the people's interests from the power of monopoly
likewise demands that action be taken
now for revision of the tariff, not revision up but revision down, and down to the difference in cost of production. Whenever monopoly prevents competition, the tariff should be lowered to the difference in labor cost. Wherever the cost of labor and raw materials in this country is not higher than in competing countries monopoly controlled articles
should be placed on the free list."This great work should be done intelligently and thoroughly and it should be put upon a scientific basis
and kept there and a permanent tariff commission, composed of members
from every section of the country
qualified by experience and training
with ample powers should be established immediately."From the speech of John F. Doherly, of La Crosse, temporary chairman of the democratic state convention in session in Milwaukee today (this was delivered two days after the La Follette telegram on the tariff, quoted on this page, was received by the Racine club):"I am afraid of these radical republicans. I am afraid of the inconsistency of a La Follette who helped to write with his own hand
the infamous schedules of the Mc-Kinley tariff act of 1890, and has never since repented for it and who today stalks up and down the country attacking with all the venom of his nature the very trusts and corporations built up and fostered by that pernicious legislation. I am afraid of those radical republicans. I am afraid of the inconsistency of a Roosevelt who allowed a member of his own cabinet and his private secretary as chairman of the republican national committee, to receive contributions from all the great trusts
as well as the life insurance companies of this country to promote his own election in 1904, and who within a fortnight has delivered a tirade against the power of wealth which would put the most radical utterances
of the most radical socialist completely in the shade. More praiseworthy indeed are a Cannon, an Aldrich, or a Spooner, who are at least consistent in their error, than these men who plan to turn the results of their own viciousness into a golden chariot in which they seek to ride on the clouds of the dizzy heights of their own ambition."The calendar's in error!
Can't you see the sprouting sprigs?
Hear the politician spouting?
Ain't the kids a-playing miggs?
Don't the fluffly shirt-waist tell you,
Don't the mushy poets shiz,
Don't the love-lorn swain impress
you
With the fact that it is spring?If the secretary of the board of trade must get along without a president, we suggest that the latter office be abolished and the salary of the president added to that of the secretary. Don't spend it carelessly,
Mr. Secretary.Aren't the Mormon brethren missing their best argument? Why not defend polygamy on the ground that a polygamist is as good as an affinity?

An Unexpected Answer

Woodruff, a Harvard man himself
and the star in "Brown of Harvard,"
was called upon in the St. Francis lobby at 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by a tall, statuesque, handsomer attired, beautiful young girl,
with Harvard red roses on her hat
and in her girdle. She introduced herself with a burst of confidence:
"You don't know me, but I'm just crazy to go on the stage."Woodruff, who is rather a small man and blond, looked up at the stunning 200-pound caller and shook his head gravely. "Suppose," he said, "you were to go one the stage,
say in the same company with me,
and there was a fire scene and a rescue, and I was the hero and you the heroine?""Yes, yes; oh, go on; how perfectly fascinating."
"And there was no one to save us,
just us two alone and in peril!"
"And not a soul looking?"
"Nobody near to help us.""Then I'd grab you right up, Mr.
Woodruff, and carry you out to safety."—San Francisco Chronicle.

SPOTLIGHTS

Tonight Elwin Strong company
will close its engagement at the La Crosse theater, offering "A Banker's Fate."Robert Edeson, the star who will appear at the La Crosse theater tomorrow afternoon and evening, in
"Classmates," a new play of West Point life, and Henry B. Harris, his manager, have neither of them ever been associated with any but American plays by American authors. While other managers and other stars are producing and playing in imported dramas, Mr. Harris and Mr. Edeson remain firm in this respect, and the result has been that they have jointly been responsible for the production of typical American plays of the highest form. Mr. Edeson's support is exceptionally fine, including Flora Juliet
Bowley, Marjorie Wood, Maud Granger,
Wallace Edinger, Sidney Ainsworth, Frank
McIntyre and Calvin Tibbits.

Sunday's Attraction

The pessimist is wont to say that in most human beings the bad in nature predominates because they judge people by appearances. Just as they meet them mostly with their bad
face forward, and they spread this idea with vehemence, but a normal mind when it judges charitably will see that the pessimist is wrong. A nature that sometimes appears vicious and thoughtless may on careful investigation be found to be capable of noble deeds and it only requires a reminder of what life really means to shed a light on a benighted mind and lead it on to paths
of virtue. For an example a woman in Sioux Falls, S. D., who has been leading a reckless, thoughtless lifeRobert Edeson, in "Classmates," La Crosse Theatre, Saturday Afternoon and Evening.for many years, bartering and bargaining for that which should be sacred, after seeing "A Woman of Mystery," sold all her belongings,
closed her den of infamy to start life
anew, and "A Woman of Mystery"
is the great play that the great emotional Miss Courtney Morgan will play at the La Crosse theater on Sunday, Feb. 16.

The Lion and Mouse

Miss Dorothy Donnelly, who will be seen at the La Crosse theater
Monday night in Henry B. Harris' company of clever players in the great Klein drama, "The Lion and the Mouse," is an actress who has been enjoying the extreme pleasure
of playing only in and about the city of New York for the past six years.
This is an unusual record for a player to hold but the fact does not seem to bother Miss Donnelly, a woman
with an even and most charming temperament.Harking back to when Robert Edeson began his phenomenal success in
"The Soldier of Fortune" Miss Donnelly was the originator of the part of Mme. Alvarez in that play, in which she continued to play until the play was given up by Mr. Edeson. She then devoted her ambition
to "When the Dead Awake," "The Man of Destiny," Klien's "Daughter of Men."Miss Donnelly heads the cast in
"The Lion and the Mouse" company
as the girl who outwits the brains of a man that has made millions and,
practically, rules the financial world
and all those that come in contact with him, and Paul Everett will again give the local playgoers the unusually convincing portrayal of John Burket Ryder that he did when the play was seen in this city last season. The balance of the cast remains almost to an individual as when Charles Klien's drama of finance was so much enjoyed here.
The environments can be relied upon
as being what goes to make up a first class attraction, as Henry B.
Harris is well known for his methods in this respect.

JUST LIFE

Affinities are not all women; some of them are men.One's superior knowledge of hu-

The Store Lady's Valentine.

I got a valentine, oh, yes!
It came from Jersey City;
Sent by some horrid girl, I guess.
Such trash I really never saw.
The picture was a hummer,
Perhaps it came from Mamie Shaw,
Whose beau I stole last summer.I wish I knew who sent it; say!
Just bet I wouldn't knock her;
A beaut would quickly go her way.
A scorching penny shocker!
I'd write her name in blacker ink
Than that she put on mine,
And sign myself (well, I don't think)
"Your own True Valentine."What say! You know who writes like that?Then tell me; stop your fooling.
Jim Burns! You're lying now; that's flat.He had a better schooling.
What's that? He married Mamie
Shaw.Last night! I don't believe it;
You're kidding me; now shut your jaw!

This room is mine; just leave it!

I do believe Lauretta's right.
I've felt some trouble brewing,
It's just a week ago tonight.Since Jim went home a-stewing
And vowing he would come no more,
I never thought he meant it,
Just when I had him caught for sure.
That valentine—he sent it!

Holy Tea.

A young Englishman with a title
and a healthy appetite recently went to spend a few days at a monastery
in Switzerland. By chance he arrived on a Friday, when the fare was especially frugal. He had little to eat that day, and went to bed hungry. During the night, as is their custom, one of the fathers went to the cells with a benediction. "The Lord be with you," which, of course, he said in Latin. When he came to the door of the visitor's cell he knocked and said, "Dominus tecum!"
"Who's there?" cried the young Englishman. The monk repeated "Dominus tecum!" "Ah, thanks, I'm much obliged," said his lordship, getting out of bed. "Please put it down
outside."—Bellman.

DIPPED INTO CONGRESS.

(St. Louis Republic.)

Like the old woman who went to the moon on broom, Henry S. Caulfield of St. Louis rode into congress on a dipper. At least it was a dipper which gave him the successful start which finally landed him in the halls of congress. Mr. Caulfield doesn't mind admitting this himself.
In fact, he is proud of it, and whenever he thinks of this dipper he grows eloquent."It was a wonderful invention," that dipper," said he to a crowd of congressmen at the capitol. "No household equipment was complete without it. Why, you could make a half dozen different utensils out of it—
a dipper, a funnel, a sieve, a colan-
der, a strainer and a biscuit cutter.
It was a combination, a regular monopoly of everything needed in the kitchen."It was more than ten years ago when Mr. Caulfield owned the little shop on Seventh street in St. Louis, where he manufactured and sold the patent dipper. Besides himself, it took the combined efforts of from six to ten tinnies to supply the demand. He made good money out of the enterprise, but while working over the tin and soldering pot he became fired with an ambition to be a great lawyer. So one day when a man came along and offered him $1,100 for the outfit and plan the proposition was taken up instantly.
The next day young Caulfield matriculated at the Washington university law school, from which he was graduated with honors. Then he practiced law, and finally was elected as representative in congress. Next year a campaign emblem in Mr. Caul-field's district will be a miniature
dipper.ALADDIN OF LONDONBY MAX PEMBERTON
(Authors and Newspaper Association Copyright.)He waved his hand as though to dismiss the subject finally; but his words left Alban strangely ill at ease.
"Old Paul is a fanatic," he said presently, "but a very kindly one. I think he is very selfish where his daughter is concerned, but he loves his country and is quite honest in his opinions. From what I have heard in Union Street, he is very unwise to go to Poland. The Russian authorities must be perfectly well aware what he has done in London, and are not likely to forget it. Yes, indeed, I am sorry that he has been so foolish."He spoke as one who regretted sincerely the indelicacy of a friend and would have saved him from them.
Gessner, upon his side, desired as little talk of the Boriskoffs as might be. If he had told the truth, he knew that Alban Kennedy would walk out of his house never to return. For it had been his own old complices who had persuaded old Paul to return to Poland—and the Russian police were waiting for him across the frontier. Any hour might bring the news of his arrest. The poor fanatic who babbled threats would be under lock and key before many hours had passed, on his way to Saghalin perhaps—and his daughter might starve if she were obstinate enough. All this was in Gessner's mind, but he said nothing of it. His quick perception set a finger upon Alban's difficulty and instantly grappled with it."We must do what we can for the old fellow," he said lightly. "I am already paying for his daughter's education and will see to her future.
You would be wise, Alban, to cut all those connections finally. I want you to take a good place in the world.
You have a fine talent, and when you come into my business, as I propose that you shall do, you will get a training you could not better in Europe. Believe me, a financier's position is more influential in its way
than that of kings. Here am I living in this quiet way, rarely seen by anybody, following my own simple pleasures just as a country gentleman might do, and yet I have but to send a telegram over the wires to make thousands rich or to ruin them.
You will inherit my influence as you will inherit my fortune. When you are Anna's husband, you must be my right hand, acting for me, speaking for me, learning to think for me.
This I foresee and welcome—this is what I offer you tonight. Now go to Anna and speak to her for yourself.
She is waiting for you in the drawing room and you must not tease her.
Go to her, my dear boy, and say that which I know she wishes to hear."He did not doubt the issue, who would have done? Standing there with his hand upon Alban's shoulder,
he believed that he had found a son
and saved his daughter from the peril of her heritage.
So is Fate ironical. For as they talked, Fellows appeared in the garden and announced the Russian, who carried to Hampstead tidings of a failure (disastrous beyond any in the eventful story of this man's life).

CHAPTER XIX.

The Russian appeared to be a young man, some thirty years of age perhaps. His dress was after the French fashion. He wore a shirt with a soft embroidered front and a tousled black cravat which added a shade of pallor to his unusually pale face. When he spoke in the German tongue, his voice had a pleasant musical ring, even while it narrated the story of his friend's misfortune."We have failed, mein Herr," he said, "I come to you with grievous news. We have failed and there is not an hour to lose."Gessner heard him with that self-mastery to which his whole life had trained him. Betraying no sign of emotion whatever, he pulled a chair
toward the light and invited the stranger to take it."This is my young kinsman," he said, introducing Alban who still lingered in the garden; "you have heard of him, Count. And then to Alban,
"Let me present you to my very old friend, Count Zamoyksi. He is a cavalry soldier, Alban and there is no
finer rider in Europe."Alban took the outstretched hand
and, having exchanged a word with the stranger, would have left the place instantly. This, however,
Count Zamoyksi himself forbade.
Speaking rapidly to Gessner in the German tongue, he turned to the lad presently and asked him to remain."Young heads are wise heads sometimes," he said in excellent English. "You may be able to help us,
Mr. Kennedy. Please wait until we have discussed the matter a little more fully."To this the banker assented by a single inclination of his head."As you say, Count—we shall know presently. Please tell me the story from the beginning."The Count lighted a cigarette, and sinking down into the depths of a monstrous arm-chair, he began to speak in smooth low tones—a tragedy told almost in whispers; for thus complacently, as the great Frenchman has reminded us, do we bear the misfortunes of our neighbors.
"I bring news both of failure and
of success," he began, "but the failure is of greater moment to us. Your instructions to my Government, that the Boriskoffs, father and daughter, were an embarrassment to you which must be removed, have been faithfully interpreted and acted upon immediately. The father was arrested at Alexandrov Station, as I promised that he should be—the police have visited the school in Warsaw where the daughter was supposed to reside
—this also as I promised you—but your mission has been in vain. So is necessary for present styles and there is a choice allowed of inverted

The skirt is cut in eleven gores,

THE WORLD'S RAILWAYS

(New York Sun.)

A very useful report just issued by the bureau of statistics of the department of commerce and labor
shows that in 1905 the railway mileage of the world was 567,000. Allowing conservatively for subsequent increase, it is safe to say that it is now approximately 600,000, of which two-fifths, 225,000 miles, is in the United States.By world grand divisions the chief distribution is:

	Miles.
North America	260,000
Europe	190,000
Asia	52,000
Africa	17,000
Australia and Oceania	17,500
South America	15,000

Of the practically 600,000 miles of railway in the world no more than 15
per cent is within tropical and subtropical areas. The greatest length of railway in any tropical country is that of India (including Burma) 30,000 miles; while tropical and subtropical South America has 15,000
miles, tropical and subtropical Africa 14,000 miles, Mexico and Central America 13,500 miles, the West Indian islands, 2,500 miles, the Dutch and French possessions in the tropical orient about 1,500 miles each,
tropical and subtropical Australia
about 1,000 miles, Siam 500 miles,
the Philippines about 200 miles, and Hawaii territory about 100 miles.There is more or less dead wood in every family tree.PROF. KOHC COMING HERE.

"Horse racing no longer depends on betting. It is too popular. People will go to see the thoroughbred race for valuable stakes when the bookmakers are all dead. Of course the revenue to those conducting the sport may not be what it has been, but the game will continue even if a bill prohibiting betting is passed. 'Thousands of people love horse racing for the excitement there is in it. Only 20 per cent of those who go to the tracks bet anyhow. At that, I believe the price of admission should be raised to $5, for some of the big crowds on holidays cannot be comfortably accommodated.'"

HANDY SETS NEW SWIMMING RECORDS

CHICAGO, Feb. 14.—H. J. Handy unattached in the I. A. C. tank at the first annual interscholastic meet held in Cook county, established two new American records in the 100 and 150 yards back stroke events. Handy's phenomenal time was made in the 150 yards back stroke event. The local star passed the 100-yard mark in 1:19 3-5, clipping one-fifth of a second from the former American mark, held by C. M. Daniels of the New York Athletic club. The 150 yards was completed in 2:03 2-5, seven seconds faster than Daniels' mark.

REMAINS OPTIMISTIC IN BETTING CRUSADE

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—John E. Madden arrived here from Europe on the Cunard steamer Caronia. He has been away seventy days traveling in France and Egypt. When asked for his views as to the crusade against betting on horse races in this state, Madden, one of the Karpf submitted a rule disqualifying the owners and employees of the bowling alley upon which the games of a league or tournament association are bowled from receiving any individual prizes offered at the contest, where all the games in question are bowled on one set of alleys.

The rules are those providing for a change of convention city where satisfactory guarantees are not made; one providing for the transmission of an official copy of all scores to each entrant within sixty days after a tournament and a rule that after a score has been made and passed by the official scorer the umpire and captain or individual contestant, that it cannot be changed. RAILROADS WILL SUE NOW OR NEVER

SIX-MONTHS TRIAL OF 2 CENT
FARE ENDS TOMORROW

SOME ROADS MAY SUE

General Impression Is, However, that No Attack Will Be Made
on the Law

MADISON, Wis., Feb. 14.—(Special.)—The two-cent fare law will have been in effect in Wisconsin six months tomorrow. It is the amount of time which the railroad representatives told the members of the legislature they would allow as a trial of the law and if there is any litigation to be started to contest the validity of the act, on the ground that it is confiscatory to property, it will now be started at once.

It is understood here that in spite of a falling off in the railroad receipts, due to a financial stringency, that the roads have so curtailed their expenses that there has been no loss and that the two-cent law will be allowed to remain in effect unmolested.

Complaint in Some Quarters.

There is a complaint in some quarters and even an intimation that the matter may go into the courts. A careful canvass of men at the capitol, who are in close touch with the operation of the railroads, reveals the fact that not one has been told that any suits will be started. Nearly all admit, however, they have heard from other sources there may be suits started, but they believe the rumors to be baseless.

The railroad attorneys, who have been before the railroad commission recently, are non-committal on the subject. If a suit were started it would only be on the ground that the earnings had decreased month by month, as compared to last year, and for the service the roads are not earning a proper amount.

Stringency Is Blamed.

The financial stringency, which existed over the country during the last three months of 1907, has had a decided effect upon railroad travel, no one can successfully dispute. Railroad men testifying before the commission three weeks ago, said there had been a falling off in receipts from 20 to 30 per cent. Trains have been taken off in some instances. Should the railroads take the matter into the courts they would aim to show that under the two-cent fare law it continued indefinitely, they will be compelled either to materially reduce the number of passenger trains operated; to cut down present expenses in equipment, which are very heavy, or to limit the number of trains.

It is said that the passenger earnings are only from 18 to 20 per cent of the entire earnings of the average road. This is about the relative percentage on the Northwestern and Wisconsin Central lines. The balance of 80 per cent of the earnings comes from the freight and express business.

Has Heavy Expense.

Some of the railroad men say that while the passenger business does not bring returns of over 20 per cent of the whole, the expenses to every road operating first class passenger trains are between 40 and 50 per cent greater than would be the expense for operating the road for freight alone.

The great difference is shown from the constant expense in keeping up high grade railroads; heavy steel tracks, the finest of coaches and other rolling stock; more careful signal service and greater precautions in the movement of trains. The recent decision in the two-cent cases in Pennsylvania, where the law was declared unconstitutional, on the ground that it was confiscatory, has caused many to believe that this might be the outcome in Wisconsin, where the number of passengers carried has been less. The accurate data both of the tax commission and of the railroad rate commission would cause the roads to hesitate, for the state has access to data as reliable as is possessed by the roads themselves.

ALTROCK FINALLY ACCEPTS CONTRACT

CHICAGO, Ill., Feb. 14.—Nick Altrock's scruples against signing a contract with a "condition" clause in it apparently were not insurmountable, or else he was delighted with his work in the national bowling tournament.

The postman dropped a bulky envelope on President Comiskey's desk at White Sox headquarters yesterday and its contents proved to be the contract which the master of the Sox had sent to the German southpaw and against the terms of which Altrock was reported to have kicked so strenuously. In the proper place was the pitcher's autograph.

With Altrock in line, President Comiskey has all his regulars signed up, and his verbal agreements to sign, and a bunch of youngsters besides, the present total being thirty-one contracts, not counting Manager Jones and Dougherty. There are a few more recruits on the list who have not been heard from, but Comiskey cannot recall their names without consulting his books.

SAWS OFF LIMB HE SITS ON.

KEWANEE, Ill., Feb. 14.—August Tenpound, while engaged in trimming trees in his yard yesterday, sawed off the branch on which he was sitting. From the twenty-five foot fall to the frozen ground, he suffered internal injuries from which he may not recover.

NEW RULES FOR ALL TRAIN CREWS

OFFICIALS WILL COMPLY WITH NEW FEDERAL LAW

REVISE WORKING SCHEDULES

New Sixteen Hour Limit Makes This Necessary on Railroads Running Through This City

Operating officials are busy figuring how they will be able to comply with the provisions of the federal law making it illegal for any employee connected with the movement of trains to work more than sixteen hours consecutively. The act, which becomes effective March 4, is specific in its terms, but to make working conditions throughout so that they will fit in calls for extraordinary efforts from the officials.

"I wish we knew what we were going to do about the law," replied an official yesterday. "We are now seeking to learn from the legal lights what will have to be done."

Operating officials say that the men usually do not have to work longer than sixteen hours. But there are exceptional cases. There may be a hot box, or the other hand, and one little accident, to delay the movement of a train and the crew gets in at the terminal several hours behind the schedule.

A train might be only a few miles from its destination, but according to a literal interpretation of the law the crew cannot take it through if the legal time limit has expired. The train would have to stand idle on a sidetrack, waiting until the crew shall have had eight hours' rest. Within only a few miles from the terminal, this in reality would work a hardship on the crew, who would prefer to work a little longer in order to get a rest at home. Several new working rules will have to be devised, all of which will have to meet the requirements of the law and yet be practical.

Governing Clause

The section of the act which applies to trainmen is as follows: "That it shall be unlawful for any common carrier, its officers or agents, subject to this act to require or permit any employee subject to this act to be or remain on duty for a longer period than sixteen consecutive hours, and whenever any such employee of such common carrier shall have been continuously on duty for sixteen hours he shall be relieved and not required or permitted to go on duty until he has had at least ten consecutive hours off duty, and no such employee who has been on duty sixteen hours in the aggregate in any twenty-four hour period shall be required or permitted to continue or again go on duty without having had at least eight consecutive hours off duty."

The railroad violating the law shall be liable to a fine of not to exceed $500 for each violation.

TROTTER BOARD ENLARGES SCOPE

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—Official recognition was given the international character of the National Trotting association when at their session of the association's biennial congress, the Canadian provinces were made a concrete part of the organization by the addition of a delegate from the Canadian dominion to the board of general officers. The office of third vice president was created and Alexander MacLaren of Buckingham, Que., was chosen for the new office.

Of more importance to large numbers of American horsemen was the association's action opening the doors to amateur racing under the association's rules. It was provided, by means of an amendment to rule 44, which was carried with only three dissenting votes, that records cannot be made or bars incurred in contests on the tracks of members, for premiums other than money, when no entrance fee is collected from competing horses.

ROOSEVELT APPOINTS FULL BLOODED CREEK

HONORABLE MOTY TIGER

Honorable Moty Tiger is a full-blooded Indian, 65 years old. President Roosevelt recently appointed him head of the Creek nation in the Indian territory. This is a rather unique power which the president has, that of appointing chiefs of Indian nations. The Creeks, like the Cherokees, have a regularly organized government with elected representatives and two chiefs—a principal chief, corresponding to a president, and an assistant chief, corresponding to a vice president. Chief Tiger speaks English well, but prefers to carry on his official business in his native tongue through an interpreter. He is a versatile Indian, as his records show. He enlisted in the civil war as a private and served through the whole period of that conflict. Later he was Tribal peace officer, a member of both branches of the Creek legislature and also district judge, attorney general, school superintendent, prosecuting attorney and second chief. Furthermore, he is an ordained minister of the Methodist Episcopal church and conducts services in his native tongue.

The Hamilton Club And Thos. D. Knight, Its President

CHICAGO, Feb. 11.—The Hamilton club proposes to make itself the most substantial political organization in the United States. Plans are under way for the erection of a new $1,000,000 home, which will be one of the most elaborate structures in Chicago. The club is at present well housed, but it purposes ownership of a structure to which it holds complete title and which can stand as an eternal monument to its power and strength.

This ambitious project has been evolved under the presidency of Thomas D. Knight. Mr. Knight is a lawyer by profession and has been in Chicago many years. He is a member of the most exclusive organization in the city besides being a politician of power and popularity. To him is given the greater part of the credit for landing the republican national convention for Chicago. Mr. Knight was one of the first boosters for Chicago as the place for the convention, and it was at his suggestion that the Chicago delegation lay low in Washington when other cities were scrambling for the coveted honor. This policy is what in the minds of Illinois politicians gave Chicago its advantage.

Mr. Marsh who was one of the younger business men, was 29 years of age and was well known in La Crosse. Besides a widow he leaves a father, two sisters and a brother to mourn his loss.

The funeral will be held at 3 p. m. Saturday from the home of Paul Kieselbach, 114 North Fifth street.

THE POOR MAN'S COW AND THE RICH FARMER

In Gjerpen, Norway, there was a poor man. Indeed, so poor was he that his cow was his fortune. But it came to pass that the cow died, and the poor man was in sore straits. Kindly neighbors heard of his plight, and soon a petition soliciting funds to buy the poor man another cow was in circulation. Some people subscribed a little, and some turned away from the petitioner, for they were selfish, and their hearts were cold. Finally the canvasser came to a rich farmer. "So good a poor man should not have to humble himself with a petition for help," said he. "Go to my stables and take a cow home to him."

The poor, poor man got his cow, and the rich farmer had "laid up treasure in Heaven."

NO AUDITORIUM DECIDES JURY

La Crosse doesn't need an auditorium according to the decision of the jury at the regular meeting of the Franklin club held last evening. The action of Messrs. WILLING TO PLEAD TO SLIGHT CHARGE

MAURICE J. O'BRIEN KNEW PETTY LARCENY

STOLE 18 CTS. FROM PERSON

Which Would Have Constituted a Penitentiary Offense, but All of Them Were Tramps

"What's the charge, judge—petty larceny?"

This is what Maurice asked the court when the complaint, charging that he had stolen 18 cents and a plug of tobacco from the person of one Olaf Aga, another tramp, was read.

"Yes, petty larceny," replied the court.

"I plead guilty, then."

And the offender was led away by Detective Taylor to begin a 30 day sentence at the county jail.

The complaint showed that the prisoner had gone through the pockets of another tramp while an accomplice held matches that he might see to work. The tramps have been sleeping at the north side jail for a couple of nights. This morning the accomplice, an aged tramp was sent out of the city, and District Attorney Bosshard decided to prosecute O'Brien on the lesser charge of petty larceny.

O'Brien's experience of court matters was made evident when he inquired carefully of the charge before pleading guilty. While he readily accepted the jail sentence, it is likely he would have demanded an attorney and a trial, had the charge of robbery from the person, involving a prison sentence been preferred against him.

OFFICERS FIND LOOT IN WIERD CHAPEL HOUSE ON "INDIAN HILL"

candles, prayer bench and all of the accoutrements of a shrine. To one side stood a small grind organ. The whole thing was covered by a sheet. Questioning the woman Mr. Mohr failed to get an explanation of its presence in the house.

To one side of the room stood a wicker clothes basket, and in this was found a large quantity of plug tobacco, together with several pounds of unground coffee. A sack of flour was also found. In reply to a question as to why she kept her flour in such a place the woman replied that it was kept there to save it from the mice. Further search of the room failed to reveal any more of the stolen property except some tobacco.

Flour in a Trunk
Nothing was found in the next room but in the pantry a second sack of flour was found hidden in an old trunk and covered with pans and dishes.

After searching the house and finding several other small articles Mr. Mohr returned to the first room and upon lifting up the mattress of the bed unearthed a "jimny," typical of the kind used by burglars. When questioned concerning its presence the woman replied that her husband was a mason and that the "jimny" was one of his tools. Search of the premises failed to reveal the man, however, and after loading the goods into his rig Sheriff Mohr returned to his office.

Found in Woods

The police were notified at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon and at 6 o'clock the man was in custody at the central station. He was caught by Officers Deneen and Yehle in the woods to the east of Indian hill. It is presumed that he had been notified of the visit of the sheriff, by his wife, and was trying to hide.

The arrest of Pallwoda is of unusual importance owing to the fact that it is expected to clear up a series of burglaries that have been tormenting the citizens, especially those of the north side, for some time.

The house of Antone Pallwoda, 527 Kane street, father of John, was searched by Mr. Mohr but nothing was found that would warrant his arrest.

"Coal Oil Johnny" was one of the oldest oil kings of Pennsylvania. He grew to be a millionaire, but his entire fortune went in fighting the trust, and he became a wanderer and hanger-on about saloons.

A TIP FOR FAT WOMEN

In a few years that excess fat of yours will become a bad habit—impossible to break. Better take time by the forelock and reduce now in a natural way if you would keep intact the youthful symmetry of 20 through the trying years of middle age. Go to the druggist and ask him for 1/2 ounce Marmola, 1/2 ounce Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatic, and 3 1/2 ounces Syrup Simplex. Take a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime. Mix them at home if you wish, but see that the Marmola comes to you in a sealed package. This mixture makes firm fleshed, well-formed women out of flabby, shapeless ones. It animates their stomachs to burn up the food fats instead of allowing them to gather at the waist line. Without disturbing the diet or requiring exercise to help it out it dissolves the fat away just where needed the most. It has been known to melt away harmlessly as much as 16 ounces a day without causing a single wrinkle.

EDMUNDS IN HOT REPLY TO RILY

forts. He protested that Mormons believe in and reverence Father, Son and Holy Ghost as deeply and as sincerely as do any Christian sect.

Quoting from the miracles of the Bible and of the Book of Mormon, Elder Edmunds drew parallels the intent of which was to show that the miracles of one were as believable as those of the other. The essence of a miracle he urged, is its apparent unnaturalness, and he could find nothing in the word of his prophets more unnatural, or supernatural, than the men coming alive from the fiery furnace.

Polygamy Not Touched.

He defended the inspiration of the Book of Mormon, reviewed the history, and scientific conclusions regarding the American continent, and pursued the strictures of the evangelist with the strength of an able logician. On the Mormon assumption of authority over government he barely touched, and he did not deal with polygamy. The address last night being understood to be but a summary of subjects upon the more important of which President Edmunds will elaborate tonight, it is expected that he will discuss these two matters fully in his next address.

VIROQUA MAN FOUND UNCONSCIOUS AFTER GAMBLING LOSSES

VIROQUA, Wis., Feb. 14.—(Special.)—Charlie Thompson, a barber at Viroqua, last Saturday evening drew a $25 check on the First National Bank after banking hours and Ed. Lind, a furniture man, cashed it. Later Thompson came back with another $25 check but Mr. Lind refused to further accommodate him. It is said the money was lost in gambling.

On Sunday evening Mr. Thompson went to his barber shop and told the boy that it would be his last night around there. After he went away the boy became worried and started out after him and found him lying in a snowdrift unconscious. He was taken indoors and Dr. Minshall summoned and a stomach pump used. When he regained consciousness he was delirious and ran amuck. Dr. Minshall managed to get control of him with the assistance of a chair as a weapon after a good deal of trouble. Dr. Minshall presumes Thompson was suffering from poison.

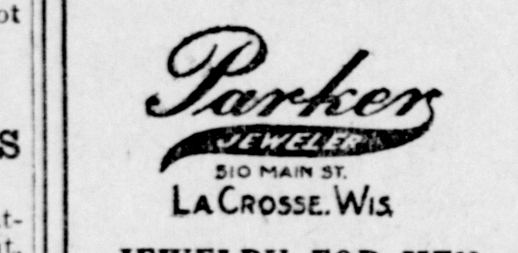

MRS. HARTLEY RAND IS NOT DIVORCEE

Friends in the city have received word to the effect that Mary A. Patterson has been divorced from her husband, William Wallace Patterson, in the district court at St. Paul. She was given the right to resume her maiden name, Mary Hartley. She is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Rand residing on a farm two miles east of Onalaska.

The report that Mrs. Mary Hartley was divorced was erroneous. The latter is her mother.

Mrs. Mary Hartley married William Hartley, an Englishman, 45 years ago. He died 20 years ago. Ten years later she married J. B. Rand who died about five years ago. Last November she left on a visit to England and is now there.

BLACKMORE BARELY ESCAPES DEATH

STRUCK ON HEAD BY HEAVY IRON CASTING

HE SUSTAINS SCALP WOUNDS

Workman Standing Under Hoist When Block and Tackle Breaks Knocking Him Down

Frank Blackmore, 218 North Eleventh street, narrowly escaped from being instantly killed yesterday at the Hellemann Brewing company building, where he was struck by a large casting which was being hoisted. He was knocked to the ground. His spine was seriously injured and he received several ugly scalp wounds which bled profusely.

He was hurried to the St. Francis hospital in the ambulance, where Dr. G. J. Egan attended him and sewed up the wounds.

It is regarded as a miracle that his skull was not fractured. Mr. Blackmore was underneath a large iron wheel casting which was being hoisted to the upper floors. He was standing on the ground floor. The wheel was being drawn up on a single pulley when the block and tackle broke and allowed the wheel to slide back onto Mr. Blackmore, who was gulding it from beneath, just as it reached a height of about eight feet. Had the wheel been a little farther up when the accident occurred, the man would no doubt have been killed.

He was resting easily this morning.

HOLMEN CREAMERY ASSOCIATION REPORT

The directors of the Holmen creamery association, through Mr. H. M. Swarthout, has issued the following report on the year's business:

Submitted to the stockholders at the annual meeting held in the town hall in the village of Holmen, Feb. 10: "The gross receipts from all sources for the year 1907 amounted to $167,567.25, an increase over the year 1906 of $15,001.10, while in fact we gathered 17,110 pounds less from the farmers than the previous year. There was paid to patrons of the creamery for furnishing 577,674 9-16 pounds of butter $142,230.86; there was paid for gathering this butter (in the shape of cream) $4,884.45; paid for making butter, managing the business, delivering the butter f. o. b. the cars at Midway railroad station, $2,678.70. Supplies to the amount of $3,749.70 were bought during the year; repairs, taxes, wood, ice and other items cost $1,016.28. An addition to the creamery, a new ice house of stone and metal was erected at a cost of $777.43. The sum of $11,925.06 was paid for freight and commission. All this butter that is shipped goes to Brundage company, commission merchants, at Cleveland, O. Sold 55,110 pounds of this butter to merchants in the city of La Crosse, and vicinity. All this cream is graded at the creamery and all that passes from number one is churned separate and made into pound prints then packed in 30 and 50 pound boxes. All number two is packed in tub and shipped and sold in the eastern markets for what it will bring. There is none of this No. 2 butter sold at home. This creamery is owned by the farmers and is conducted on a co-operative plan governed by seven directors, four of which are elected one year and three the next, all holding for the term of two years. All cream heretofore has been tested by the oil system, but at the last annual meeting they voted to adopt the Babcock test, because it is more generally used by creameries."

Only One Objection.

In the view of Judge Brindley there is but one objection to the municipal court idea—that all of the fines would go to the state school fund, whereas those now collected by the police court go to the city. While this amounts to considerable the deduction of the salary now paid the police justice and the fact that the county would get considerable back from the state in school funds, would partly compensate for this loss.

The Juvenile Court Plan.

Judge Brindley, desiring the establishment of a juvenile court here, or at least the privilege of conducting the trials of juveniles as they are conducted in regularly authorized juvenile courts, has made application to the county board for the appointment of a clerk in his office. With an extra clerk Judge Brindley says he would be able to handle a juvenile court, and he believes it would be a great benefit to the community. It is upon this proposition that the county committee will meet within two weeks to decide. They will make their report to the March meeting of the county board.

Chairman Valentine Keppel declined to intimate what he believed the committee might decide, and also declined to say whether or not he personally favored Judge Brindley's application for the clerk.

Judges Have Authority.

In the event that the county board declines to grant the clerk hire, Judges Fruit and Brindley have the authority under the law to establish a regular juvenile court, without consulting the county solons. This will probably be done in case the application for clerk hire is turned down. However, the establishment of a regular juvenile court would be more expensive to the county, as under the law a full record of all evidence must be taken and typewritten for the records. This would require the services of an expert stenographer, whose salary would necessarily be higher than an ordinary clerk such as is now asked.

Most of the attorneys of the city have for a long time favored the establishment of these new courts, and will probably do all that is possible to accomplish this result.

GLADPHEET EXHIBIT ATTRACTS NOTICE

One of the most interesting advertising stunts which has been seen in the city for some time is the demonstration of "Gladpheet," a corn cure preparation made by the Keene company of New York, in the window of Hoehsler brothers' drug store. A young woman has been demonstrating the cure to the interest of hundreds of shoppers. Lester Keene, formerly manager of the Fay-Lewis Cigar company of this city, is in charge of the Gladpheet and other Keene preparations in this district and is conducting an energetic campaign of publicity.

HONOR DR. FOWLER FOR LOVE OF HIM

TWO CITIES MOURNED AT FUNERAL OF LATE PASTOR

THE OBSEQUIES IMPRESSIVE

Floral Tributes as Beautiful as Tribute From Friends Paid in Funeral Oration

Yesterday afternoon in the presence of large numbers of sorrowing friends that completely filled the large edifice, the last impressive rites were held over the remains of Dr. J. K. Fowler, deceased pastor of the First Presbyterian church. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. E. R. Burkhalter, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Cedar Rapids, Ia., who delivered the address, Dr. Colville of Racine, moderator of the synod of Wisconsin, who read the scriptures, Dr. Randall of the North Side Presbyterian church, who offered prayer, and Dr. Thamos. A large number of pastors from out of the city and all the members of the Pastors' union attended the services in a body. The address of Dr. Burkhalter was a beautiful tribute to the life of Dr. Fowler, to his wonderful activity as a minister, and to his attributes as he had known them during the time of their respective pastorates in Cedar Rapids.

Dr. Burkhalter brought out the different characteristics of the life and work of Dr. Fowler, his integrity of purpose, and above all his deep love of the Holy Scriptures.

He said the people of Cedar Rapids are overwhelmed with sorrow at the unexpected demise of Dr. Fowler, and that he came freighted with messages of love and sympathy for the sorrowing congregation and especially the bereaved family. The floral tributes were exquisite and the casket was almost hidden by them, beautiful pieces being sent by every society in the church as well as by friends both in and out of the city.

Particularly sweet was the one sent by the Christian Endeavor, of which Dr. Fowler was a beloved supporter, being the emblem of the society—the large C in red and white carnations and the smaller E in the red blossoms only.

Floral tributes were also sent by the Men's league, the Members of the Session, who were the pall-bearers, the Junior Endeavor society, the Ladies' Aid society, the Woman's Missionary society, the Alpha Delta Phi, and the Pastors' union. At the grave a brief service was conducted by Dr. Burkhalter, and the benediction was pronounced by Dr. Colville.

might work a hardship upon him in giving to another court many fees upon which he is now dependent, it would relieve him of a large amount of work in a criminal line, and that he would be enabled to devote proper study to civil cases and probate work in rendering his decisions; to give attention to decisions and the finer points of the law in the matter of detail. If the new court is established it would probably be necessary for the county board to make an increase in the compensation of the probate court.

Only One Objection.

In the view of Judge Brindley there is but one objection to the municipal court idea—that all of the fines would go to the state school fund, whereas those now collected by the police court go to the city. SEND VALUABLE FURS TO A FAKIR

WINONA MAN NOW GOES TO GIVE TESTIMONY IN CASE FURNISHED A FAKE ADDRESS

And When Costly Goods Were Received They Were Promptly Sold at Cut Figures

Max Conrad of Winona will leave this evening for Chicago to appear before the grand jury to give evidence of a bold swindling game in which he was the victim and lost a valuable consignment of furs which he sent to Chicago last November.

Deputy United States Marshal W. W. Rich was in Winona Saturday to subpoena Mr. Conrad as a witness. Mr. Conrad was ready to go and it has been largely through his efforts that the offender has been brought to trial.

Mr. Conrad says that he sent, last November, a consignment of furs to Chicago representing different lines made at his factory in Winona to what he supposed was the mail order house of George E. Anderson & Co. in Chicago, but it developed afterward that the address furnished him was not that of the real firm of this name at all, but that of a man named Wolf operating on another street.

The first intimation that Mr. Conrad had that anything was wrong was when he read a report the latter part of November that some suspicion had been aroused against this man Wolf by the way in which he was moving goods out of his establishment, and that he had been arrested under the charge of obtaining goods under false pretenses. Mr. Conrad at once went down to Chicago and consulted with the authorities there, telling them about the goods he had shipped from Winona.

The original prosecution by the Chicago city authorities was not a success and the fellow was acquitted, but from the story told by Mr. Conrad, the government authorities had become convinced the matter was one that ought to be looked into carefully and accordingly as Wolf was given his liberty at this trial he was re-arrested by the United States authorities, and has since been in jail. He was given a preliminary hearing before Commissioner Foote in January, at which Mr. Conrad was present, and was bound over without bail to the February grand jury. It is to the meeting of this grand jury that Mr. Conrad will go on Wednesday evening, and he is firmly of the belief that a true bill will be returned against the fellow.

Mr. Conrad loses the entire consignment of furs he sent down to Chicago in November. After the arrest of Wolf search was made and a number of the shipments of goods made to him by other dealers recovered, but for a long time Mr. Conrad was unable to get any trace of his furs. He stumbled across a clue quite unexpectedly one day when one of his clerks told him that he had seen a person in the lower end of Winona wearing a garment that he was almost sure was one of those shipped to Chicago. Mr. Conrad investigated and was able to identify the garment by his own private number thereon. On inquiring he was told that the person had purchased it from a certain house in Chicago and the figure was named, which was lower than it cost Mr. Conrad to make the garment. The purchaser willingly told the name of the firm from which he had bought the coat, and said they had represented to him the coats had been purchased at a great bargain at an auction and this was why they were able to sell them so cheap.

Mr. Conrad at once communicated with the authorities in Chicago, and they traced the matter down, in this way finding an accomplice who it was said had operated with Mr. Wolf in disposing of the goods. Twelve coats were located in one place and eight in another. Mr. Conrad, however, was unable to recover any of the furs, inasmuch as he had sent them voluntarily to Chicago as samples expecting to receive orders for different lines.

SOME MODERN SOLONS WHO LOOK LIKE FAMOUS SEERS OF OLDER DAYS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—Members of the lower house of congress like to see a resemblance between some of their present confreres and famous men who have passed and gone. In at least three prominent cases there is good cause for advantageous and striking comparison. Congressman William Sulzer of New York is a perfectringer for the distinguished Henry Clay. Just at present Sulzer's friends in the house are about to send out an alarm because of his continued and protracted absence, due probably to the fact that he has just assumed additional obligations at Philadelphia by way of matrimony. He has been in his seat only twice since the session began, and his friends say he has just simply got to return and assume the roll of looking like Henry Clay.

The genial Albert Burleson of Texas resembles Robert Burns more and more, and in his downy smile, and in his old personality he resembles Sir Walter Scott as he turns his cheek.

The rotund Edwin Denby of Michigan reminds old-timers of the talented Robert Ingersoll when he was young, and Denby is certainly an excellent likeness, in appearance, at least, to the famed atheist.

A Gentle Hint

When a boy Gov. Hughes knew something of dire poverty. His father was earning a salary of $2,000 a year in a Baptist church in Green point, which was frequently unpaid. The family's larder was often empty, and the salary long overdue. The father hesitated to ask for it, but when he did one night in prayer meeting it was in these words: "I cannot invite any of you to my house to dine, for I must tell you frankly that our household stock is so reduced that I should feel ashamed to have one of your own servants sit at my table."—New York Times.

DID KING EDWARD ABDICATE THRONE?

LONDON, Feb. 14.—Anti-Catholic zealots are much exercised over the change in King Edward's constitutional status, which they affirm has resulted from his attendance at the Roman Catholic requiem mass for the repose of the soul of King Carlos. This is the first instance in modern times of a British sovereign personally attending mass in a Catholic church within the British dominion, and it is said by Protestant precedent to amount to abdication of the throne.

CAN SHIP DEER HIDES

MENOMONIE, Mich., Feb. 14.—According to a recent decision by Attorney General Bird, deer hides may be shipped from the state of Michigan to other states for tanning purposes. This is very good news to the sportsmen of the Upper Peninsula, as, under the old ruling, no hides could be shipped outside of the state, and, as there are no tanneries located in the Upper Peninsula and no other facilities for tanning existing, our sportsmen were unable to get their buckskins tanned. The new ruling will enable them to ship the hides into Wisconsin or Minnesota and receive them back from the tanneries as buckskin.

An Honest Dinner Set Offer

A real, high-grade, genuine, gold medal dinner set. Not given away, but easily earned—when we say easily earned we mean easily earned. We do not intend to give you this genuine gold medal dinner set for nothing. We want some of your time and some of your recommendation and some work from you. We want just any crediting, but we want your help. We want just five hours' worth of your time, and you can give us your time in the evening, or in any of your spare hours. If you haven't the time yourself, you can have your children help you. In fact your children can do all the work if you will only show them how.

Then this grand, glorious genuine gold medal dinner set will be yours. It will be sent you absolutely free of charge to you, and you pay absolutely nothing for it. Not one penny of your money do we want.

We cannot describe the beauty of this genuine gold medal dinner set, with its handsome decorations of arabesque blossoms in all their natural colors and its beautiful gold bands. We know that a great many dinner sets have been sold which are not up to expectations, and when we tell you that this is genuine gold medal china it ought to be enough. It ought to convince you that we mean what we say, that our offer is an honest one, and that when you have done the work for us, you will get this dinner set free. This grand dinner set is really worth your while, a dinner set of premium, but just the kind of a dinner set that you would buy at the store for a high price.

There are twenty-five pieces in this beautiful set. It is not as large a set as some people claim to give you, but we know you would rather have fewer dishes of a very higher grade than a lot of poor grade china, and as we do not want to ask too much of your time, and do not want to keep you busy on our little work for more than an evening or two, we are offering this 25-piece set. But of the china that we do give you, the 25 pieces or more, will be of the highest genuine gold medal grade.

I know you want that kind of china on your table. I want you to have the very best china—the kind of china used in the homes of rich people. I want you to have it and enjoy it, and I want you to picture to yourself how your table will look set with the beautiful, genuine gold medal china. Look closely at this picture of the dishes. See the fine red decorations—a picture can hardly do justice to the set, but you get a faint idea of the beauty of the dishes by looking at picture.

See the gold—the rich deep gold effects—the pure white alabaster quality. All these marks which have distinguished this china won for it the gold medal at the St. Louis World's Fair. This was the only china that won the gold medal at the World's Fair. Even though you become very rich and have the finest kind of house furnishings you will always be proud to entertain your friends with this dinner set. You can truthfully and honestly tell your friends that this is the only china that won the gold medal at the St. Louis Exposition. You can show them the gold medal mark of quality on every set.

Just Your Name and Address

Just your name and address on this coupon or on a postal card, or in a letter, will be enough. We will promptly send you the material so that you can earn the beautiful genuine Gold Medal Dinner Set. If you decide that you cannot do the work, or that your children don't want to, there is no harm done—just return the material and you will be under no obligations whatever.

Whose Say-so Is Best?

With nearly all medicines put up for sale through druggists, one has to take the maker's say-so alone and exclusively as to their curative value. Of course, such testimony is not that of a disinterested party and accordingly is not to be given the same credit as if written from disinterested motives.

Dr. Pierce's medicines, however, form a single and therefore striking exception to the above rule. Their claim to the confidence of invalids does not rest solely upon their owners' and makers' say-so or praise. Their ingredients are matters of public knowledge, being printed on each separate bottle-wrap. Thus invalid sufferers are taken into Dr. Pierce's full confidence. Scores of leading medical men have written enough to fill volumes in praise of the curative value of the several ingredients entering into these well-known medicines.

In favor of Dr. Pierce's medicines is the frank, confiding, open, honest statement of their full composition, giving every ingredient in plain English, without fear of successful criticism and with confidence that the good sense of the afflicted will lead them to appreciate this honorable manner of confiding to them what they are taking into their stomachs when making use of these medicines.

WHAT THEY CURE. People often ask "What do Dr. Pierce's two leading medicines—'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Favorite Prescription' cure?"

Briefly, the answer is that "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most potent alterative, or blood-purifier, and tonic, or invigorator, and acts especially favorably in a curative way upon all the mucous lining surfaces, as of the nasal passages, throat, bronchial tubes, stomach, bowels and bladder curing a large percentage of catarrhal cases whether the disease affects the nasal passages, the throat, larynx, bronchia, stomach (as catarrhal dyspepsia), bowels (as mucous diarrhea), bladder, uterus or other pelvic organs. Even in the chronic or ulcerative stages of these affections, it is generally successful in affecting cures. In fact the "Golden Medical Discovery" is without doubt, the most successful constitutional remedy for all forms of catarrhal diseases known to modern medical science. In Chronic Nasal Catarrh Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy fluid should be used for washing and cleansing out the nasal passages while taking the "Discovery" for its blood cleansing and specific, healing effects upon the mucous lining membranes. This combined local and general treatment will cure a very large percentage of the worst cases of chronic nasal catarrh, no matter of how many years' standing they may be.

As to the "Favorite Prescription," it is advised for the cure of one class of diseases only—those weaknesses, derangements and irregularities peculiar to women. It is a powerful, yet gently acting, invigorating tonic and nerve.

For weak, worn-out, over-worked women—no matter what has caused the break-down, "Favorite Prescription" will be found most effective in building up the strength, regulating the womanly functions, subduing pain and bringing about a healthy, strong, vigorous condition of the whole system.

Dr. Pierce believes that our American forests abound in most valuable medicinal roots for the cure of most of our obstinate and most fatal diseases, if we would properly investigate them; and, in confirmation of this firm conviction, he points with pride to the almost marvelous cures effected by his "Golden Medical Discovery," which has proven itself to be the most efficient stomach tonic, liver invigorator, heart tonic and regulator, and blood cleanser known to medical science. Not less marvelous, in the unparalleled cures it is constantly making of woman's many peculiar affections, weakness and distressing derangements, is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, as is amply attested by thousands of unsolicited testimonials contributed by grateful patients who have been cured by it of leucorrhoea, painful periods, irregularities, prolapse and other displacements, ulceration of uterus and kindred affections, often after many other advertised medicines had failed.

Both these world-famed medicines are wholly made up from the glyceric extracts of native, medicinal roots, found in our American forests. The processes employed in their manufacture were original with Dr. Pierce, and they are carried on by skilled chemists and pharmacists with the aid of apparatus and appliances specially designed and built for this purpose. Both medicines are entirely free from alcohol and all other harmful, habit-forming drugs. What is said of their power to cure the several diseases for which they are advised may be easily learned by sending your name and address to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for a little booklet which he has compiled, containing copious extracts from numerous standard medical books, which are consulted as authorities by physicians of the several schools of practice for their guidance in prescribing. It is FREE TO ALL. A postal card request will bring it.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cured the cause and you cure the disease. One "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. Druggists sell them, and nothing is "just as good." They are the original Little Liver Pills first put up by old Dr. Pierce, over 40 years ago. Much imitated, but never equalled. They are tiny sugar-coated granules—easy to take as candy.

Suggestion For New Coins For the Special Use of Children

William H. Pease of Kansas City suggests a new United States two-cent coin designed especially for children—good to buy candy with or drop in the Sunday school basket for the heathens.

"I believe a coin, valued at 2 cents, larger than the 1 cent, and made of some bright metal, with a child's head on one side and a 'Teddy bear' or some other design on the other side, would be popular with the children and better adapted for their use than the copper cent," says Mr. Pease in his letter.

"The average child spends 5 cents for candy and 1 cent goes to the Sunday school—a total of 6 cents. With the 2 cent 'child's coin' I propose, they could spend 2 cents for candy and 2 cents for the Sunday school—a total of 4 cents, a saving of 2 cents, a saving of teeth, a saving of souls advanced."

NO SLANDER IN "SAT ON HIS LAP"

WATERLOO, Ia., Feb. 14.—Judge F. C. Platt, who is hearing the slander and libel suit for $10,000 brought by Mrs. J. Hamilton against Mrs. Nellie Frank, has ruled that it is not slanderous for one person to say that he saw a married woman sitting on the lap of a man other than her husband, therefore it is not actionable for damages. Therefore one of the counts of the petition which alleged slander was stricken.

KICKED AS BOY; HITS ASSAULTER

VICTIM OF LOUIS SIGMAN MAY NOT RECOVER

RECALLS OLD TIME QUARREL

Fellow Who Attacked Him When He Was Too Small to Defend Himself Repaid by Dakotan

ST. CLOUD, Minn., Feb. 14.—Because he kicked Louis Sigman when the latter was a mere lad and unable to resist the insult, Anton Saduske, a well known farmer residing in Mayhew Lake township, five miles north of this city, was the victim of a murderous assault in a saloon at Gilman, Benton county.

Saduske, the two Sigman brothers and Tom Arkushuski were in the saloon drinking. Louis Sigman recalled to Saduske that he had kicked him when he was a boy. The subject gave material for a discussion which resulted in a fight. In the midst of the encounter Sigman, who was getting the worst of the argument, seized a billiard cue and struck his opponent a vicious blow over the head, cutting open his scalp. Saduske dropped to the floor in an unconscious condition. He was immediately moved to his home, where a physician was summoned. The injured man's condition is very serious. He has not yet recovered consciousness and it is feared that he will die. Young Sigman has been placed under arrest.

HIGH KICKER, SHE BREAKS HER LEG

DEADWOOD, S. D., Feb. 14.—While emulating William Tell, using her foot instead of a gun, and attempting to kick an apple off the head of a companion, Annette Van Dyne, aged 20 and pretty, slipped and broke her leg just above the ankle. The girl was doing "stunts" on a dare and when she lost her balance, her weight snapped the bone when it bent under her and it is probable that she will be a cripple for life.

The African Negro

Has Beautiful Pearly Teeth, Clean, White and Perfect, Without a Plaw, Even in Old Age.

Living Near to Nature, His Digestion Is Perfect.

Dr. Livingston, and later, Henry Stanley, both of whom spent much time in the exploration of Africa, in their memoirs mention the fact that members of all the tribes that they came in contact with possessed beautiful, white, pearly, sound teeth, and that on investigation they found that this was due to the fact that the digestive organs of the negro had never been impaired, and that they were able at all times to take care of the coarse foods that were taken into the stomach.

The negroes' food is of the plainest kind and is seldom if ever cooked. It is eaten as it is found, with but little preparation.

The cause of unsound and imperfect teeth found among civilized people is due to two important facts—the prevalence of dyspepsia, indigestion and stomach troubles, and the food we eat.

In the foods that we eat there is a lack of phosphate and other materials necessary to make repairs and supply the waste in the teeth.

Then again few people in civilized countries are free from dyspepsia, which interferes with the whole system and causes trouble everywhere.

To have sound teeth, cure your dyspepsia and eat proper foods, and you will have little trouble with them.

A package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets should be kept in the house at all times. They cure dyspepsia, sour stomach, indigestion, and put the stomach and intestines in a healthy condition.

The Tablets contain a powerful ingredient which assists the stomach in the process of digestion, and puts it in a healthy condition.

There are many bodily ills due entirely to stomach troubles.

If you are ill ask yourself if your trouble may not be caused by indigestion.

This may be the cause of the whole difficulty, and to cure it means to have perfect health.

You can get Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at any druggists', for they are as staple as any drug in the store. They are 50 cents per package.

Send us your name and address today and we will at once send you by mail a sample package, free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

RUFUS PUTNAM IS AFTER CADETSHIP

RUSHFORD YOUTH DESCENDANT OF FAMOUS GENERAL

OHIO S. A. R. BOOSTS YOUTH

Memorials Are Presented to the President Urging Appointment in Recognition of Ancestor

RUSHFORD, Minn., Feb. 14.—(Special.)—There appears to be a strong chance that President Roosevelt will appoint Rufus W. Putnam of Rushford to be a cadet at large in the United States military academy at West Point. All the papers in the matter have been forwarded to Congressman James A. Tawney and he will present them to the president at an early date. The matter has been quickly promoted for the past six months.

It has long been the intention of Rufus Putnam's parents that as soon as he had arrived at a proper age to receive such an appointment, an effort should be made to bring the matter directly before the president based upon the services to his country of his great ancestor—General Rufus Putnam.

After consulting prominent Ohioans last spring influential members of the Ohio society, Sons of the American Revolution, volunteered to inaugurate the movement by the adoption of a favorable resolution at the annual meeting of the society, which was soon to take place.

This suggestion was gladly accepted, and the memorial which follows was the result.

But What'll You Do With the Family Surrey?

Because you can afford an auto it doesn't follow that you can afford to have a good family surrey or buggy standing in the shed as dead capital. You'd better convert it into hard cash as quickly as you can. It may come in handy for repairs on the auto. And remember this; the longer it stands idle, the more the paint will peel, the more the rust will corrupt, the shabbier it will look, and the cheaper you will have to sell it. Another thing—if you have a vivid memory of what you put out for it, and don't want it to go as charity—by all means don't be compelled to sell it to your neighbors or your relatives. You'll get the short end of it. They always expect a big discount on friendship. You'll be obliged to give it to them because they happen to know some of your little foibles and short comings. Junk Dealer Had No Right to Purchase From Boys Without Written Consent of Parents

N. Levenstine, a junk dealer, perhaps never heard of the statute which makes it a misdemeanor to buy goods from boys under 18 years of age, but ignorance of the law is no excuse for breaking it, so he was required to pay Judge Brindley $12.75 in county court this morning for buying eight cents worth of brass from Archie Loomis, Ed. Rohrer, Bud Gage and Alfred Harsh.

The case was the occasion of the visiting of the families of the lads, and Attorney Hartwell was retained in the behalf of the youngsters.

Attorney Hartwell called the attention of the court to the statute under which the boys were not responsible for the sale of the brass, and Judge Brindley dismissed action against them.

DOCTORS' SUIT IS ARGUED TODAY

Following the suit for a bill of $134.00 with interest, which was awarded to the La Crosse Lutheran hospital for room, board and care given to the son of Anton Hesselberg, this morning in circuit court, Doctors Gunderson and Christiansen started suit for the amount due them from the elder Hesselberg for work performed in their operation on the boy, for a gunshot wound which he received in October, 1906.

Dr. Smedahl was called and sworn as a witness for Dr. Gunderson, the plaintiff, and Mrs. Martin, Anton Hesselberg and O. Sletten were sworn for the defendant, Albert Hesselberg.

Modern Miller — Unseasonable weather still prevails in winter wheat belt, no definite reports of damage to crop are coming to hand but there is increasing apprehension of the effect the mild weather will have on the crop later on, as it is favorable to the propagation of all kinds of insect pests.

JUDGE J. C. KAREL IS GUEST OF HONOR

MILWAUKEE, Feb. 14.—"Ikey Karel always has made good."

This was the dominant sentiment of all speeches at a complimentary dinner given by the Jefferson club in the Hotel Blatz in honor of Judge Karel last night. Former Alder R. B. Mallory presided as toastmaster, and about 300 friends and associates of Judge Karel attended.

SAVE GIRLS FROM SHAME

CLINTON, Ill., Feb. 14.—With the exclusion of the love letters written by Mabel Snell, now Mrs. J. S. McNamara, to the late Col. Tom Snell, the end of the contest for his millions was brought into sight.

A check to the plans of complainants was administered when Charles I. Kline, assistant postmaster of Clinton, was on the stand. Attorney Sweeney had hoped to show through his testimony that the eccentric millionaire corresponded regularly with a score of young girls in and around the city and with several times that number outside the city.

NEW CHARGES AGAINST MORSE

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—New complaints against Charles W. Morse were filed with the special grand jury investigating alleged banking and insurance crimes in this city. These complaints, it is understood, amount practically to a charge of grand larceny in connection with one of Morse's steamship schemes. The sum involved is $800,000, which it is declared Morse took without right from the treasury of the Hudson River Navigation company.

EPITAPH FIRST AID TO CUPID.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Feb. 14.—Hugh De Witte, a Mexican war veteran at the Indiana state soldiers' home, who died here, aged 93 years, was buried today beneath a tombstone on which he himself had carved this epitaph:

A bachelor lies beneath this sod. Who's disobeyed the laws of God; Advice to others here I give—Don't live a batch as I did live.

THE TOBACCO MEN WORRY OVER CROPS

FAILURE OF LAST YEAR'S CROP A SEVERE BLOW

CUBAN IMPORTS INFERIOR

No Changes are Noted in Local Market Prices; Poor Roads May Keep Farmers at Home

Tobacco men are greatly concerned over the failure of the tobacco crops last fall and dealers say that the tobacco received from Havana is poor, besides being scarce. A drought of six weeks' duration caused the crops to be far behind in their growth. Consequently the tobacco now being sent to America, it is claimed, is raw and is poor for use in cigar making.

The local market is stationary today, no change is noted over yesterday's prices.

IS NO GROUND FOR A GENERAL ORDER

STATE COMMISSION CAN'T ACT ON BADGER WIRE SERVICE

WILL HANDLE SPECIFIC CASES

Announcement Made That Committees Having Grievance Will Be Heard Separately

MADISON, Wis., Feb. 14.—Because the telegraph companies and not the railroad companies are responsible for inadequate telegraph service in the state, and because the constitutionality of the eight hour telegraphers' service law is being tested, the state railroad commission announced that it can not issue a general order affording relief from the inconvenience and annoyance resulting from the reduction or abolition of telegraph service at many villages, and that the commission says that if any particular place feels satisfied that its telegraph service is inadequate

MADISON, Wis., Feb. 14.—Because the telegraph companies and not the railroad companies are responsible for inadequate telegraph service in the state, and because the constitutionality of the eight hour telegraphers' service law is being tested, the state railroad commission announced that it can not issue a general order affording relief from the inconvenience and annoyance resulting from the reduction or abolition of telegraph service at many villages, and that the commission says that if any particular place feels satisfied that its telegraph service is inadequate

LAWRENCE JUNIOR • PROM TONIGHT

MADISON, Wis., Feb. 14.—(Special.)—This is the day of the great junior prom of the class of 1909. At the university gymnasium tonight, more than 200 couples will dance—at $3 per. Since the prom admission price was cut from $6, it is regarded only as a plebian event, and it may be that this year's prom will be the last. The decorations this year are regarded as beautiful as usual, despite the smaller prom fund.

FIVE CHILDREN FROM 117 FAMILIES

WAUSAU, Wis., Feb. 14.—Only five children were born to the 187 married members of the two principal women's clubs in the city during the last. Two were born among the 117 married members of the Ladies' Literary club, and three among the 70 married members of the Tuesday Musical club.

EAU CLAIRE MAN ACCUSED OF MURDER

EAU CLAIRE, Wis., Feb. 14.—The word has just been received here that Lee Hammond of this place killed a man at a lumber camp near Frederick. According to the story Hammond is now in jail. Two strangers came to his camp and applied to the cook for a meal. The cook called the camp boss, but he failed to oust the strangers, and Hammond, the foreman, was called. The strangers showed a belligerent attitude, and Hammond, picking up a cant hook, struck one over the head and killed him. The other man fled to Frederick and swore out a warrant for Hammond, who was subsequently placed under arrest.

MAN BARKS LIKE A MAD DOG

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Feb. 14.—Joseph Volk, 928 Locust street, whose strange desire to bark like a dog has furnished an odd case in the Emergency hospital, will today be sent to the Milwaukee hospital for insane.

"Volk's affliction is peculiar," said Dr. Alexander McKinley last night, "but he may recover. It appears to be a sort of a sub-acute mania and treatment at the asylum may relieve him. Whenever approached by any of his family Volk barks like a dog, sometimes changing to the sound of a sealion's bark. He is not a victim of hydrophobia."

MUST TAKE OFF "DINKY" CAR
MADISON, Wis., Feb. 14.—The remonstrance of Monroe and Madison

against the substitution on the Illinois Central road of a new-fangled gasoline motorcar in place of a regular passenger train has been presented to the railroad commission at a hearing. No decision has been rendered.
